

LINDSEY VAN

Born November 27, 1984 in Grosse Pointe, MI.

- 1991 Began ski jumping at age 7
- 1995 Began competing internationally at age 10, including the Women's Summer Grand Prix; won two gold medals at the women's demonstration event in Thunder Bay
- 1998 Moved to Lake Placid to train full time at the National Sports Academy
- 2002 Fore jumper at the Olympics, Salt Lake City, Utah
- 2004 Longest jump ever by an American woman, 171 meters at Vikersund, Norway
- 2005 Second place at Holmenkollen Continental Cup, Norway
- 2006 Second place overall in FIS Ladies Continental Cup series
- 2007 Third place overall in FIS Ladies Continental Cup series
- 2008 Record jump 105.5 meters on the Vancouver 95 meter Olympic hill during the Canadian Nationals
- 2009 Gold medal at first ever FIS Women's World Championship in ski jumping; first US ski jumping medal of any kind at World Championships or Olympics since a bronze was earned in the 1924 Olympics by Anders Haugen

Thirteen time US National Champion

Eight wins and 41 podium finishes in the FIS Ladies Continental Cup series, which began in 2004