

ROBERT “BOB” KECK

Bob is a native of Oconomowoc WI; he's a retired architect. He and his wife Carol continue to reside in Oconomowoc.

Highlights of his competitive career include:

1960 Class “A” Central Division Champion

1962 United States FIS team member

1963 11th place at Olympic Team tryouts at Ishpeming, MI

3rd place North American Championships, Iron Mountain, MI

Bob Keck has been a tireless worker and staunch supporter of women’s ski jumping. He began early by working with, coaching, and encouraging his daughter Karla, who has gone on to garner international fame as a ski jumper.

Bob continues his efforts in support of women’s ski jumping and looks forward to the 2014 Winter Olympic Games where ski jumping for women will be recognized for the first time in history.